Our Scripture-Psalm 130 (ESV):

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord! O Lord, hear my voice! Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleas for mercy!

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared.

I wait for the Lord, my soul waits, and in his word I hope; my soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.

O Israel, hope in the Lord! For with the Lord there is steadfast love, and with him is plentiful redemption. And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Discuss:

1. What is motivating the psalmist to depend upon the Lord?
2. What promises of God are there to motivate us?
3. What attitude does the psalmist tell us to have toward ourselves?
4. What promises of God would you like to claim for yourself?
5. In what specific area of your life could you depend more on the LORD and less on yourself?

My Prayer List: _____

Verse to Meditate on This Week: "You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. 4 Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock. Isaiah 26:3-4 (ESV)

Music:

As you meditate and worship this Sunday morning, sing this song to the Lord;

God will make a way where there seems to be no way.

He works in ways we cannot see; He will make a way for me.

He will be my guide, hold me closely to His side.

With love and strength for each new day; He will make a way, He will make away.
