

On The Road To Emmaus

The road of this life might be full of flowers or full of thorns. More likely than not it is a mixture of flowers and thorns. The sky overhead may be bright and filled with sunshine or it may be dark with the gathering gloom. The weather maybe pleasant like springtime or it may be cold and bleak like the bitter winter. However, we must remember what our Lord said: "... behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28.20 ESV).

We may be experiencing days of monotony. You know, days filled with little things. Things that seem unimportant. Common chores around the house, work that will never be noticed or acknowledged. In short a life of drudgery. Remember what Jesus said: "...behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28.20 ESV).

We may be experiencing days of temptation. Temptation in our home life, in our work life or in our relationships. You know, the subtle little snares that are laid out by Satan in this life. Remember what Jesus said: "...behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28.20 ESV).

So as you walk this road of life remember to take everything to Jesus in prayer. Why? Because Jesus said: "...behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age." (Matthew 28.20 ESV).

A Fellow Disciple