

On The Road To Emmaus

I was going to write about a particular topic but I can't remember what it was. Yes I wrote down the thought on a piece of paper but I can't remember where I put it. I can forget the names of people. I can forget anything, including things I thought I would never forget. I can forget Bible verses that I had committed to memory. I have forgotten verse references so I have difficulty finding that paraphrase of a verse that is haunting my mind. It seems that I struggle with that common human malady of forgetfulness.

I am surmising that the psalmist also struggled with the same problem because in Psalm 103.2 he wrote: "Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits,". It is easy to forget what God has done for us. He has forgiven us. He heals all our diseases. He has given us His loyal love. He has given us every good thing. He has shown us mercy. He does not chide us. He does not give us what we deserve.

Perhaps it is time to make our memory a matter of prayer so that we do not "forget ... all his benefits,". As you go to prayer this week ask the Lord to remind you to remember "all his benefits". As He reminds you of His benefits you will be able to "Bless the Lord, O my soul," along with the psalmist.
