

On The Road To Emmaus

It seems that in our daily walk with God He teaches us lessons through prayer. One such lesson is to wait. This observation is not original with me. It is found in the book of Psalms. Psalm 27.14 says, "Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!"

God uses prayer to teach us how to wait. How does He do that? He does that through always working through prayer. He does not answer our prayers according to our time schedule. He answers our prayer according to His will, His purposes and His timing for His glory and our good.

We must "Wait for the LORD" without becoming annoyed or anxious. We must "Wait for the LORD" without complaining or grumbling

We must "Wait for the LORD" with an attitude of prayerful courage. We need to fix our eyes on Jesus and be in nonstop communion with Him. Everyday day, minute by minute we must look to Jesus for His grace and mercy that will keep and preserve us to the end.

Again, "Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!" Are you waiting for the LORD?

A Fellow Disciple