

On The Road To Emmaus

As Christians we should start our day in prayer asking Jesus for His help in our daily life. We know that the reason we should do this is that everyday as we go out into the world we will have things to do. Hopefully we will bless the lives of those around us, endure temptations and rejoice or suffer as the circumstances of the day require.

Sometimes at the end of the day it can seem like we have nothing to pray about. I think this comes from the fact that we have not gotten into the habit of coming to Jesus and telling Him about everything. In the gospel of Mark, chapter six and verse thirty we find these words: "The apostles returned to Jesus and told him all that they had done and taught."

We need to remember as we go through our day that everything we say or do and everything that we fail to say or do must be reported to our Master. If we would remember to do this, we would begin to do those things which would give us pleasure in reporting to Him.

There is no better way of keeping our days holy and godly than to tell Jesus every evening everything that we have said and done during the day.

A Fellow Traveler