

On The Road To Emmaus

Here are some quotes of Charles Spurgeon on prayer to consider.

"It is not a matter of time so much as a matter of heart; If you have the heart to pray, you will find the time."

"God is too good to be unkind and He is too wise to be mistaken. And when we cannot trace His hand, we must trust His heart. When you are so weak that you cannot do much more than cry, you coin diamonds with both your eyes. The sweetest prayers God ever hears are the groans and sighs of those who have no hope in anything but his love."

"We should pray when we are in a praying mood, for it would be sinful to neglect so fair an opportunity. We should pray when we are not in a proper mood, for it would be dangerous to remain in so unhealthy a condition."

"Unless you have forgiven others you read your own death warrant when you repeat the Lord's Prayer."

Consider what those who have gone before have told us on the subject of prayer.
