

On The Road To Emmaus

Sometime as we walk the path of life it can seem difficult to pray. The uncertainty around us seems to make our walk unsteady. Other believers that are around us seem to be afflicted with this same sentiment of uncertainty and yes maybe even a limited sense of hopelessness.

We do not have to live in the valley of misty anxiety that makes our pathway slippery. We must remember that this world is not our home. We are in the process of walking out of this valley of anxiety that is in this world. We are on the path to the Celestial city. Our Savior will sustain us and see us through to safe harbor.

Remember what the Scriptures tell us: "do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God." (Phil 4:6 esv).

"And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." (Luke 11:9 esv)

As we take our requests to our Lord, He will use these same storms in this life to carry us into the port of peace and contentment where there is no trouble.

So as we walk this road of life, let us remember this world is not our home. We: "...seek the city that is to come." Hebrews 13.14 esv
