

On The Road To Emmaus

Sometimes in my daily walk I feel like I am of two minds. In our daily life and walk our culture tells us that having two minds is a virtue. Perhaps the most famous slogan that at its heart embodies this state of mind is: "fair and balanced." The more we are "open minded" or "fair and balanced", people around us will tell us that we are wise and virtuous.

This double mindedness clouds our vision and strangles our prayer life. The Scripture calls us to a single mindedness. Note the following Scriptures:

"You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart" Jeremiah 29.1(ESV)

"But from there you will seek the Lord your God and you will find him, if you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul." Deuteronomy 4:29 (ESV)

And you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a whole heart and with a willing mind, for the Lord searches all hearts and understands every plan and thought. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever." 1 Chronicles 28:9 (ESV)

As we are walking down the road of life, we need to be single minded. We must have one and only one focus and that is Jesus the Christ our Lord. Then our prayer life will become more vital and pleasing to God. Oh, may we be the single minded people of God.

A Fellow Disciple