

On The Road To Emmaus

Sometimes in my daily walk I am not very obedient. Oh, I give lots of lip service too obedience but at the heart of the matter is the tendency to be self reliant. I think I can do it all myself. I am afflicted with this is common malady. This is a part of the human condition and it is not just my problem alone.

You understand, that we are disobedient if we do not bring our requests to God. Why is that disobedience? It is disobedience because we are told to bring our requests to Him. Notice what the following Scriptures tell us:

"do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God". (Phil 4:6 ESV)

"And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." (Luke 11:9 ESV)

"pray without ceasing," (1 Thess 5:17 ESV)

*"Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise."
(Jas 5:13 ESV)*

Are we walking in obedience to Christ? That is are we taking all of our requests before the throne of heaven? Only when we become obedient and take everything to our Lord will we find our path straightened and a sweetened refreshing relationship with our God.
