

On The Road To Emmaus

In our daily walk through this life we have times that are good. Everything goes well and God is blessing us. During these times we enjoy communion with God and fellow believers. Ah, a time of rest, renewal and relaxation. What a blessing!

In our time of blessing, we need to remember to pray. The Scriptures gives us guidance about what to ask for even when times are good. The psalmist tells us to ask the Lord to: "Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me! Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression. Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer. Psalm 19:13-14 (esv)

The writer of Proverbs also gives us insight for our prayer life: "Two things I ask of you; deny them not to me before I die: <sup>8</sup> Remove far from me falsehood and lying; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, <sup>9</sup> lest I be full and deny you and say, "Who is the Lord?" or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God. Proverbs 30:7-9 (esv)

So in the midst of the blessing, when you are praising the name of the Lord, remember to ask the Lord to keep you.

A Fellow Disciple